

'I Wish I Was a Farmer'
Illustrations by Darcie Harris
exhibiting at
Millmerran Library from 3 Oct

Brisbane illustrator Darcie Harris, who grew up at Pampas where her parents are still based, is exhibiting her delightful watercolour illustrations from the recently launched poetry book "I Wish I Was a Farmer".

Bush Poet Gary Fogarty wrote the poems around a series of farm animals and Darcie created the images for each one. See more info on Darcie at 'The Kenneth Macquene Art Foyer Exhibits' in the events section of our website including details of where to purchase the book and prints of the illustrations. Exhibition open every Tue, Thu & Fri, Millmerran Library 'til 5 Dec.

www.millmerranartscouncil.com.au